2007 Regional Conference

Ninth Annual
Consortium for Computing
Sciences in Colleges
Northwestern Conference

Hosted by
Linfield College
McMcMinville, Oregon

October 12 & 13, 2007

The CCSC-NW Conference is designed to promote quality computer-oriented curricula as well as effective use of computing in smaller institutions of higher learning which are typically non-research in orientation.

Because personnel at small colleges often have restricted travel budgets, the scheduling of the conference is done with consideration toward minimizing costs.

Panels and Tutorials

(Due date: March 19, 2007)

Tutorial and panel discussion submissions should include a two-page proposal, list of participants, and address, phone number, and email address of contact author.

Detailed instructions for submitting panels & tutorials will be available by January 2007.

Inquiries may be directed to the Panels & Tutorials Chair:

Call For Papers
(Due Date: March 5, 2007)

Authors: please submit papers for presentation at the conference. Papers are peer reviewed and those accepted will appear in the Journal of Computing Sciences in Colleges.

Papers must be original and not submitted elsewhere for simultaneous review. They should be quality work, typically referencing related work, and extend the body of knowledge in the computing sciences.

Papers are to be a maximum of six pages single-spaced and the abstract is limited to 300 words. Detailed instructions for submitting papers will be available by January 2007.

Inquiries may be directed to the Papers Chair:

Michele Folsom
Seattle Pacific University
