

Local Information for CCSC-SW 2017

Wi-Fi

You can sign into UCSD-guest and just follow the directions or if your campus has Eduroam, you should automatically connect.

Travel to Your Hotel from the Airport

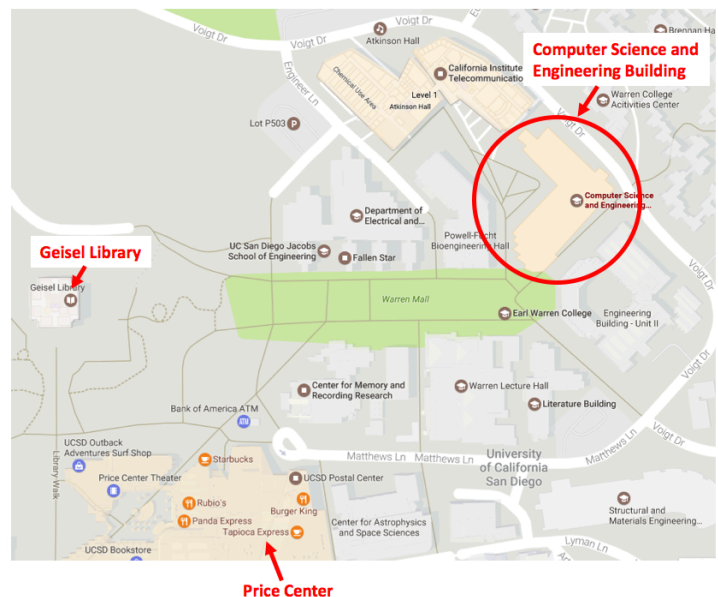

We recommend taking either a shuttle or cab (including Uber and Lyft) from the airport. However, if you do not wish to walk ~20-30 minutes from the hotel to the venue or want to use Uber/Lyft ride from the hotel to the conference venue (Computer Science and Engineering Building on UCSD's Campus), you may wish to rent a car. Parking at UCSD is $20/day on Friday, generally free on Saturday (be sure to follow signs).

A cab/Uber/Lyft ride to the hotel will be about 20 minutes. A cab does not require a reservation. Depending on the company you choose, the price estimate varies from $10-$50.

Shuttles range from 20-80 minutes depending on where other riders need to be dropped off. The estimate cost for SuperShuttle is $15 per person. There are many shuttle companies you can find on google. Some of the most common are: SuperShuttle and Cloud9.

Conference Venue

On Google Maps and Apple Maps, you can find it by searching Computer Science and Engineering Building UCSD.

Travel to the Conference Venue from Your Hotel

There are a few options available to help you get around. The time and price estimates are based on Residence Inn by Marriot San Diego La Jolla.

1. Uber/Lyft ($5-$7, 10min)
 - Destination: Computer Science and Engineering Building (EBU3B)

2. Drive (Parking fees Friday, free Saturday; 10min)

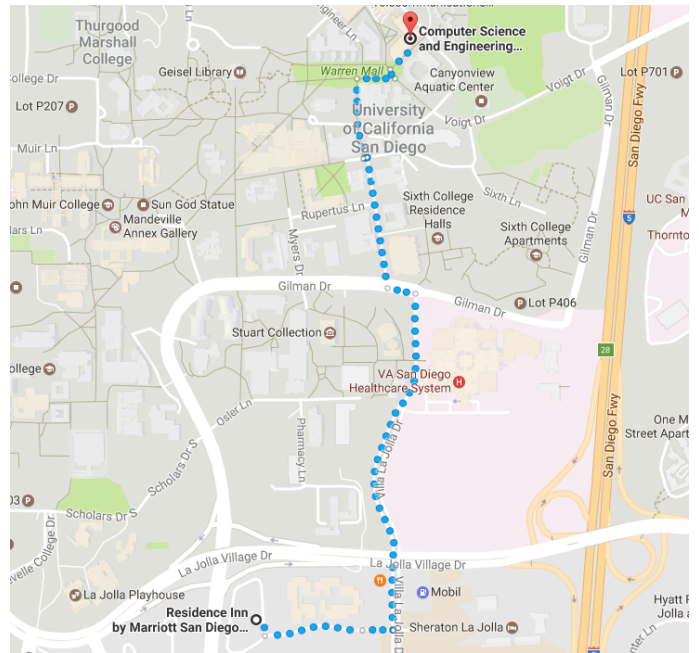

- Destination: Lot P506, Lot P510, or Hopkins Parking Structure. These parking lots have parking payment machines. Price is ~$20 per day on Friday. Free on Saturday. (Be sure to follow parking signs on campus!)

- Direction to Lot P510, Lot P506, and Hopkins Parking Structure

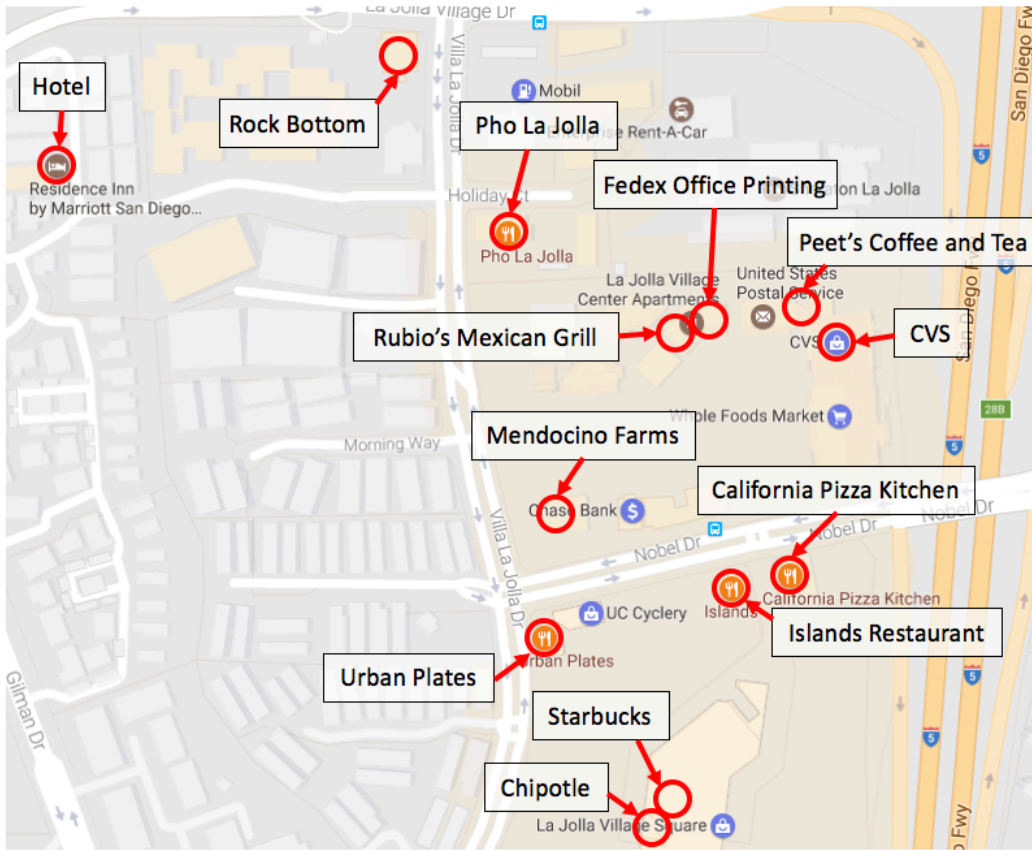

- 1) Take Villa La Jolla Dr. to Gilman Dr.
- 2) Turn right onto Gilman Dr.
- 3) Continue on Voigt Dr. You will see Lot P510 first, Lot P506 second, and Hopkins Parking Structure at the end of Voigt Dr.

3. Walk (free, 20-30min)
